-  You're looking for a budget makeup artist rather than a luxury beauty experience.
-  You're not comfortable with a structured beauty process that includes contracts and deposits.
-  You don't want professional insight and prefer to micromanage your makeup choices.
-  You expect a one-size-fits-all approach rather than a customized look that enhances your unique features.
-  You're looking for quick, rushed service rather than a luxury, personalized beauty experience with attention to detail.

Brie was amazing to work with! She did a flawless job and listened to all my concerns—especially about my brows (I'm picky lol!). I never wear false lashes, but hers felt weightless and looked stunning! She also did many bridesmaids under tight time constraints, and everyone looked gorgeous. Highly recommend her for a stress-free, easy-going bridal experience! Thanks, BVB! ❤️
